

MOSAIC BASICS WORKSHOP

WITH ENID PROBST
AT THE PIKE ROAD ARTS CENTER

944 Wallahatchie Road

Two Days:

Mar. 28, 1 – 5 PM | Mar. 29, 2 – 4 PM

Learn the Direct Technique and fabricate a 6" x 8" mosaic with artist Enid Probst! This workshop will explore the use of colorful vitreous (glass-like) tile by making a simple landscape mosaic. On day 1, students will fabricate the mosaic, and students will grout the mosaic on day 2. Enid will guide students and discuss color, composition and design.

$100 PER PERSON

Please bring latex gloves – all other supplies will be provided.

Spaces are limited! Contact the artist, Enid Probst, to learn more or register by Mar. 26: emmosaics@gmail.com or 334.235.0758

About the Artist: Enid Probst's art reflects her interest in merging classical and contemporary themes as well as contrasting textures and luminosity. The beauty of nature, scenes of everyday life and spiritual expression are her inspiration. Originally self-taught, Enid trained with master mosaic artists in the US, Italy and Mexico to broaden her understanding and refine her work. She is currently completing a Certificate of Mosaic Arts from the Chicago Mosaic School. Her work can be found across the River Region and beyond, including two community projects and a wall mosaic completed in 2015 for Jackson Hospital.
